50. Memoriams

In loving memory of Mrs. Edna W. Baldwin who left us on February 2, 1933, 47 years ago. You've not forgotten loved one nor will you ever be
As long as life and memories last
I will remember thee.
I miss you now, my heart is sore.
As time goes by
I miss you more.
Your gentle smile, your gentle face,
No one can fill your vacant place.
You are safely home in heaven.
All pain and grief is over at
Peace forever more.
Sadly missed by,
Daughter, Cassie

FEB. 4 - The coldest weather of this winter hit here on Wednesday. Snow followed with 4 inches by Thursday night it was just above zero. Ground Hog weather now. Didn't miss seeing his shadow on Saturday.

Charlie Ranson returned home from the hospital on Tuesday.

Grace Covington has returned from the hospital.

Ryland Stout went back to Richmond on Friday.

Just hope they have a very speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McIntosh were visiting the latter's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Williams, of Waynesboro, over the week end of last week.

Sympathy goes out to the Thornhill family and relatives. A number asttended the funeral on Monday afternoon at Timberlake Baptist Church in Lynchburg.

No school on Thursday on account of the snow. The children enjoyed sleigh riding.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Roach were in Farmville on Friday.

Mrs. Clarence Richardson and Mrs. Lewis Dickerson received word Saturday morning of the death of Hazel Glover Griffin of Richmond. She was the sister-in-law of their sister, Ethel Glover of Crewe.

Angie Letterman, of Pamplin, spent Saturday night with Carolyn Jane Baldwin.

Pastor's Conference is at Bethel Church at 10:30 a.m. today.

Sympathy is extended Lewis Harris and others in the death of his half brother, William, of Lynchburg, last week.

It was good to see Ryland Routt and family at preaching service on Sunday after being in for several weeks.

Sympathy is extended Bea Brown of Prospect, in the death of her brother recently.

The youth training union group had a "taco lunch" and went bowling on last Monday night.

Remember Dr. Cauthen's visit on February 10 at the morning worship service. He recently retired as executive director of the Foreign Mission Board. This is an opportunity to hear a great missionary and leader. Plan to come out to hear him.

Gene Richardson is the representative from Rocks Church to serve on Group I Indo Chinese Refugee Committee.

Mrs. Pearl Ranson went to Richmond to the Nelson Clinic on Sunday. Hope they can help her. May she have a speedy recovery.

Raiderettes drop Forest, Altavista

The Appomattox varsity Raiderettes recorded their ninth and tenth basketball victories last week, with wins over Jefferson Forest and Altavista.

Annette Carter scored 15 points and Susan Handy scored 10 enroute to a 46-28 victory over Jefferson Forest Friday night at Jefferson Forest.

The two teams played neck-and-neck throughout the first half; the score was tied at 6-6 at the end of the first quarter, and tied at 14-14 at the end of the half. Jefferson Forest's Emma Brown was a one-girl offense, scoring all but two of the team's points in the first half, and 24 of the team's 28 total game points.

The Raiderettes pulled ahead in the third quarter, scoring 14 points to Jefferson Forest's four, all scored by Brown. The Appomattox team iced the game cake in the final period of play, totalling 18 points (six by Rhonda Jaggers) to Jefferson Forest's 10.

Jaggers scored eight points in the game, as did Ruby Smith. Johnna Belter scored three and Lelita Preston sank a field goal for two points.

For Jefferson Forest, only two girls scored besides Brown; Sarah Link and Shirley Campbell each scored a field goal.

The Raiderettes hit on six of ten freethrow attempts for a sixty percent average, and the girls from Jefferson Forest were successful on four of six freethrow attempts for a 67 percent average.

The loss dropped Jefferson Forest's record to 0-11 in district play, and raised the Raiderettes' record to 8-4 in the district, 10-6 overall.

Debbie Smith captured game scoring honors last Tuesday with 11 points against a scrappy team from Altavista. The local team fought only a fourth quarter rally by Alta-

But Altavista prevails

Last-second shots beat Forest

Two Shane Abernathy free-throws with three seconds to go gave the Appomattox varsity basketball Raiders a one point victory over Jefferson Forest Friday, after a 64-79 loss to Altavista last Tuesday.

Abernathy's two foul shots sealed a nip-and-tuck contest which ended at 58-57 at Jefferson Forest.

Abernathy's foul shots gave him two of 14 points for the night, second highest Raider scorer next to Larry Kelso who scored 16 points.

Game scoring honors went to Milton Mack of Jefferson Forest, who scored 19 points.

Jefferson Forest held a one-point advantage at the end of the first quarter, when the score stood at 12-11. The Raiders bounced back with 17 points in the second quarter, however, and led at the end of the first half, 28-20.

The teams played dead even during the third quarter, each scoring 16 points. Then Jefferson Forest stormed back in the final period of play to score 21 points, and held a one-point lead with less than five seconds to play.

It was then that Abernathy was fouled and sank his game-winning freethrows.

With Kelso and Abernathy in the double-figure scoring bracket was Kim Humbles, who had ten points for the night.

Other players adding to the Raider effort were Marvin Johnson with eight points, Terry Woods and Steve Cobb with four points each, and Ron Carter with two points.

David Hughes with 10 points was the only other Jefferson Forest player to score in double figures.

Larry Kelso led Raider players in rebounds with 12, followed by Marvin Johnson with nine, and Shane Abernathy with six. The Raiders scored 21 field goals and hit on 16 of 20 freethrow attempts for a 80 percent average.

Last Tuesday's game was a different story, however. While the Raiders had three players scoring in double figures, they could not keep up with a hot-shooting Altavista team, with four players scoring in double figures and a total of eleven players adding points to the scoreboard.

Altavista had the winning margin - 15 points - at the end of the first quarter with a 20-5 lead. The Raiders outscored their opponents by two points in the second quarter, 20-18, and the score stood at 25-38 when the first half ended.

A consistent Altavista team scored 19 points in the third quarter to the Raiders' 13 points, and continued their solid shooting game in the final period, scoring 22 points to the Raiders' 26. The final score was 79-64.

The Raiders' Larry Kelso captured game scoring honors with 20 points, and Raiders Terry Woods and Shane Abernathy scored in double figures with 12 points each.

Other Raiders scoring against Altavista were Marvin Johnson with eight points, Kim Humbles with six points, Steve Cobb with four points, and Jonathan Pickett with two points.

Larry Kelso led Raider rebounders with 10 for the night.

The local team scored 24 field goals, and hit 16 of 29 freethrow attempts for a 55.2 percent average.

The Raiders' record stood at 9-6 (8-6 in the district) after last week's action. The team was scheduled to play Liberty Tuesday after the Times-Virginian deadline, and is scheduled to play Rustburg Friday at Rustburg. Game time is 8 p.m.
